PUSHING FOR LOCAL SERVICES

Norwich Lib Dems have campaigned for a night time blue bus

KEEPING IN TOUCH

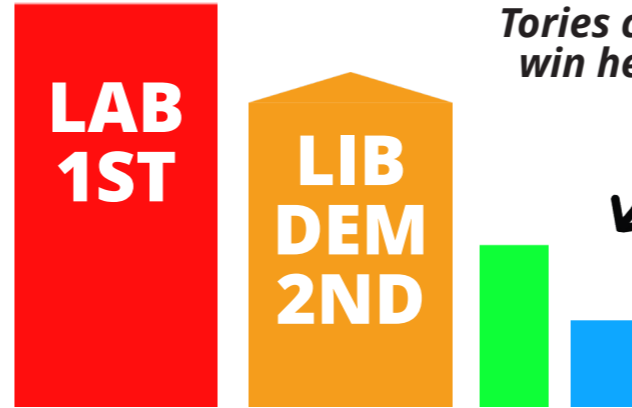

We survey and canvass local issues so we can best represent you

However you plan to vote in the general election, in the LOCAL ELECTIONS for Norwich City Council, voting Lib Dem is the best way to hold a complacent Labour council to account.

There is no risk of electing a Conservative here, last time they came last with barely 7% of the vote.

Green voters are telling us they're backing the Lib Dems to beat Labour locally and hold them to account.

THE RESULT LAST TIME SHOWS IT'S LIB DEM OR LABOUR HERE

Norwich Deserves a Strong Opposition

James can be that voice

- 1 Is genuinely local
None of the four Labour councillors here live in the ward.
- 2 A fresh perspective
A young and energetic presence fighting tirelessly for you.
- 3 Keeps things accountable
Labour has dominated Norwich for decades with impunity.

SIGN OUR PETITION: Norwich Labour should hand back their £10k COVID grant cash

The EDP revealed that Norwich Labour took £10,000 in public money designed to keep businesses afloat during COVID. As far as we are aware it has not been repaid.

While people were worried for their livelihoods, it seems Norwich Labour were using taxpayer cash to fund their own political campaigning. All as they continued to sit on almost half £1 million in assets.

Many people will be bitterly disappointed and upset by this selfish decision. We believe it was utterly wrong, and refused to take any public money ourselves on moral grounds. They should urgently and immediately pay back this money.

I/We the undersigned demand Norwich Labour hand back their £10,000 COVID small business relief grant money with apologies to the taxpayers of our city.

James & Norwich Lib Dems: Working hard for University

At the general election Norwich will rightly have the chance to express its views on this failing Conservative government.

But regardless of when that happens, on May 2nd we will be voting in local elections for the Norwich City Council. Local issues and local representation will be on the ballot, not the state of the government in Westminster.

On these, will you back a Lib Dem team that keeps in touch, and has a record of backing local campaigns for better services, like pushing for a night time bus service and keeping our streets clean?

Or will you support a Labour council who seemingly ignore your emails and letters, caring only for the perks?

Remember...

- You must bring photo ID with you to vote in-person. You do not need to have ID for a postal vote.
- Polling day is on May 2nd, 7am to 10pm, and any postal vote forms that have not yet been sent off can be handed in at your polling station.

Yet another Labour yes-man?

You have 3 Labour city councillors, a Labour county councillor, a Labour-controlled city council, a Labour MP, and after the next general election possibly a Labour Prime Minister too.

Isn't it a good idea to have some balance?

4 Labour Councillors

A Labour MP; Labour PM too?

Is this good for Norwich's democracy?
